Celebration Lutheran Church
March 4, 2018

10:30am

Lenten worship in 2018 revolves around the concept of "Giving Way." Over and over in our life as disciples we are called to submit, to yield, to bend, to collapse, to surrender to God's bigger hopes and dreams for us. During Lent we will explore these verbs and how they impact our relationship with one another and God. Wednesday Evenings we will be worshipping and focusing on our call to be invitational Christians using the prayer practice of lectio divina.

OUR RESPONSE

WE RESPOND TO GOD'S WORD IN ACTION, PRAYER, AND PEACE.

CARES ON THE CROSS

The Pastor will invite you to reflect on the question: "What old ways need to collapse because they are no longer serving discipleship?" As you have an answer, write it down and bring it to the cross. We begin our time of reflection by reciting the STOW:

Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, so that he may exalt you in due time. Cast all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you. 1 Peter 5:6-8
